General Rules

- Parents and guardians are responsible for transporting their own children whenever possible.
- An adult does not drive a single unrelated minor alone without written consent from the parent or guardian for that specific trip.
- When the academy provides transportation, use at least two adults, or one adult with two or more minors.
- Drivers must be screened adults with a valid driver's license and proof of insurance on file.

Before Any Trip

☐ Signed transportation consent from each parent or guardian

☐ Driver names, vehicle, and route shared with parents

☐ Emergency contact and medical forms in the vehicle

☐ Seat belts and car seats as required by law

During the Trip

- Go directly to and from the destination. No stops at homes or private places.
- Minors sit in the back seat when possible.
- Call or text the parent group when you leave and when you arrive.
